DESCRIPTION

A distinguished classical villa offering generous living spaces, exceptional privacy and timeless elegance in one of Marbella East's most established residential areas.

Set within a peaceful and prestigious residential enclave, this elegant villa combines classical architecture with spacious interiors designed for comfortable family living and sophisticated entertaining. A grand entrance hall introduces beautifully proportioned reception rooms, a formal dining area, private office and a well-appointed kitchen, all filled with natural light and connected through a practical, flowing layout.

The upper floor is dedicated to a collection of refined bedroom suites, each enjoying access to private terraces with open views of the surrounding landscape. A separate leisure level enhances the home with a gym, spa-inspired facilities, wine room and versatile spaces for entertainment or relaxation.

Outside, landscaped gardens frame expansive terraces and a private swimming pool, creating a tranquil setting for enjoying the Mediterranean lifestyle. A sweeping driveway and elegant entrance complete this distinguished residence, ideally positioned close to beaches, golf courses, international schools and the excellent amenities of Marbella East.
